

International research project

Christian Democrat Internationalism: its action in Europe and worldwide from post World War II until the '90s

Istituto Luigi Sturzo and Adenauer Foundation, with the contribution of Centre for European Studies are promoting an international research project aimed at reconstructing the history and documentation of the Christian Democrat Internationalism, in the occasion of its 50th anniversary. The project makes particular reference to the European Christian Democrat parties that constituted EPP.

Researches will be conducted in Italy and Europe in private and parties archives and documents, with focus on personalities and organizations that held a central role in the international activities. Seminars will be organized in order to study in-depth the role that parties and Christian Democrat movement had in European history.

The aim of the project is to promote a reflection on past and present of Europe in order to open an international debate on the future challenges that Christian-inspired parties will have to face and the contribution that they can bring.

Program of 2011 seminars

September 28th, 2011, Istituto Sturzo, Palazzo Baldassini, via delle Coppelle 35, Rome

Workshop: Christian Democrat Internationalism. The past, the present, the future

European speakers and representatives of Christian Democrat Internationalism institutions and movements will contribute in a Round Table

December 1-2, 2011, Istituto Sturzo, Palazzo Baldassini, via delle Coppelle 35, Rome

International seminar: *Christian Democrat Internationalism: its action in Europe and worldwide
from post World War II until the '90s*

Researchers and experts in European history, History of Christian-inspired parties and History of international relationships will analyze the origins of Christian Democrat Internationalism, of the organizations representing it and of its role in the twentieth century Europe, as well as the existing documentary sources in Italy, Germany, France, Belgium and Latin America.